

Colorado Business

The Denver Post

Posted: 08/12/2009 01:00:00 AM MDT

Holland & Hart LLP has been named among the 2009 Best Law Firms for Women by Working Mother magazine and Flex-Time Lawyers. The firm was recognized for its attention to work/life balance and women's issues.

Employees of CH2M Hill, the Douglas County-based engineering, procurement, construction and operations company, contributed $229,000 to nonprofit agency Water for People to help bring clean drinking water, sanitation and hygiene education to people in 10 developing countries.

Molycorp Minerals LLC of Greenwood Village announced that it has begun preparations for renewed mining of a rare-earth ore deposit at its Mountain Pass, Calif., production facility. The company plans to ramp up annual production to 40 million pounds of rare-earth products over a three-year period.

Synergetics Inc., a Fort Collins-based information-technology services company, has received ISO (International Organization for Standards) 9001:2008 certification for its quality-management system.

Intermap Technologies of Denver announced it will be providing its complete line of digital elevation models and orthorectified radar images via a Small Municipal and County Government Enterprise License Agreement.

Ping Identity, a Denver-based provider of Internet identity security, announced it has joined the Cloud Security Alliance to help develop and promote industry best practices for cloud computing security assurance.

Fortrust, a Denver-based data-center services provider and co-location facility, announced the availability of AppSafe, a disaster-recovery service.

First Data of Greenwood Village announced that The PNC Financial Services Group has renewed and expanded its agreement for transaction-processing services.

Arthouse Design, a Denver-based graphic-design studio, announced it has been awarded a commission to develop the physical branding, way-finding and signage for the Mushrif Park project in Abu Dhabi, United Arab Emirates.

Mark VII Equipment Inc., an Arvada-based supplier of solutions for the carwash industry, has launched direct sales and service operations in Oklahoma.