

Nashville Post

Bass Berry is good for women

By Geert De Lombaerde Posted on August 11, 2009 at 1:30 pm

The downtown firm has again been named one of the best places to work for women.

The winning firms have at least 8 percent lawyers working reduced hours (versus an average 5 percent nationwide) and at least 20 percent women equity partners (versus an average 16 percent nationwide). Bass, Berry & Sims PLC was recognized for a number of ongoing related initiatives, including increased use of flex-time, reduced-hour schedules, and other family-friendly policies.